PEP RALLY PRINCESS broke in front, set all the pace under pressure along the inside and proved best in a stretch long drive. FLARING STAR steadied between horses entering the clubhouse turn, pressured the winner two wide the entire trip and finished second best. SATURDAY STORMS stalked the pace four then three wide into the stretch then faded. BLUE GRASS MARY was hung five wide down the backstretch and into the far turn while within range then finished evenly. THERASAS CANDYROSE failed to menace. DRAMA PRINCESS was no factor. PHENIX was outrun. QUEEN CONCERTO showed little. HONEST DESIRE raced widest down the backstretch in the seven path and was no threat. CORALINE vied for the early lead three wide and was through after a half.
